

Digitizing Hidden Collections SYMPOSIUM

October 12–13, 2022
Baltimore, MD

Land Acknowledgement

Piscataway Peoples

Susquehannock Indian Tribe

Council on
Library and Information
Resources

Learn More

Maryland State Arts Council: Land Acknowledgements

<https://msac.org/resources/land-acknowledgements>

Native Lands

native-land.ca

<https://land.codeforanchorage.org/>

Council on
Library and Information
Resources

Digitizing Hidden Collections

Teamwork Makes the Dream Work

- Planning Committee
- Presenters
- Attendees

Teamwork Makes the Dream Work

- DHC Symposium Planning Team
- CLIR staff
- Hotel staff

#5aDayHotelStay

Thank you to our sponsors!

Mellon
Foundation

Council on
Library and Information
Resources

Digitizing Hidden Collections

Digitizing Hidden Collections

Symposium Basics

<https://forum2022.diglib.org/resources/for-attendees/>

Council on
Library and Information
Resources

Digitizing Hidden Collections

Symposium Basics

- Code of Conduct
- COVID/health protocols

Symposium Basics

- Twitter handle #digHC
- WiFi
 - Network: CLIR_conference
 - Password: 2022CLIR

Attending Sessions

- Sched
- Community notes
 - <https://bit.ly/2022CLIR>
- Use the mic

About the Venue

- Restrooms
- Quiet room
- Baby changing station
- Private nursing room

Need Help?

For assistance, visit the registration desk

Council on
Library and Information
Resources

Keynote

Dr. Michelle Caswell, Professor of Archival Studies in the Department of Information Studies at the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA)

“So that Future Organizers Won’t Have to Reinvent the Wheel”: Activating Digital Archives for Liberatory Uses